

Protection for Your Mind

Ephesians 6:17a*

For Christians, the assurance of future and final rescue is the hope of our salvation (1 Thes. 5:8). Our text today says that the spiritual “helmet” we are to wear in our spiritual battles is the “helmet of salvation.” This indicates that Satan’s blows are aimed at our minds. He is intent on destroying our sense of security and our assurance in Jesus Christ. If the devil can strike a blow against us that causes us to become discouraged and filled with doubt, he will have little trouble crushing our joy and cancelling our testimony of God’s grace.
