

2 TIMOTHY: BOOK REVIEW

Minister in confidence and purpose (1:1-18): God has called you. There's no shame in suffering for the gospel. Cherish biblical truth.

Suffer well by grace (2:1-13): Ministering in truth will result in suffering. Suffer by Christ's grace and with purpose and resolve.

Minister in a way that pleases God (2:14-26): Handle biblical truth in a God-honoring way. Live in a way that God can readily use for His glory and purposes.

Minister knowing how bad the world is (3:1-13): Understand the times are evil. Living godly will lead to persecution, but God is faithful.

Minister with the life-changing truths of God's Word (3:14-4:5): God's Word makes us wise and transforms lives. Preach it boldly. Fulfill your ministry.

Learn from Paul in his last days (4:6-22): Live a Christian life worthy of reward. Look forward to Christ's return. God always delivers His people.
