

MINISTRY UPDATE: SANDY & SUE NAFZIGER

Sue and I recently completed 32 years of uninterrupted ministry to military personnel. We never take for granted that this work is made possible by your faithful prayers and financial support. Each month, as we see the list of those who have sent gifts, we are humbled and deeply grateful for the Lord's provision through you. In all these years, we have never experienced a lack of resources that would require us to pause the ministry for additional fundraising, nor has there ever been a shortage of young men and women needing to hear the Gospel.

Time and again, the Lord has supplied our needs abundantly and at just the right time- through the thoughtful, faithful giving of those who love Him and His Gospel. We are truly thankful, and we could share countless stories of service members whose lives have been eternally impacted by your partnership. Your gifts have directly influenced many young people who will never be the same because of the truth of the Gospel they have heard at the Hospitality House.

Our weekly schedule has remained consistent throughout the past year and will continue into 2026. On Wednesdays at the Lackland Air Force Base Chapel, Sue prepares dinner mostly at home- then we take it to the Chapel for the airmen. Dinner is followed by an hour of Bible study. On Thursdays, a smaller group gathers at our home for in-depth study of systematic theology- for those who desire to grow deeper in their walk with Christ. Most Sundays, Sue also hosts lunch for the airmen after church at our house- they come for food and fellowship... and to escape the dorms on base. We continue to see encouraging signs of spiritual growth.
